General Profile:

Innovative Technical Solutions, Inc. also known as NovaSol, provides engineering and scientific solutions to military, medical, and environmental problems. Our technical staff has hundreds of years of combined experience in modeling, design, development, fabrication, testing, and analysis of electro-optical systems. Our company is made up, predominantly, of scientists and engineers, and we expect to experience rapid growth over the next few years. From spacecraft to aircraft to ground-based systems---on ship-board and deep ocean submersibles, our team s systems have been there.
